HOMILY REPORT REQUIREMENT

Homily Reports are a requirement for the Sacrament of Confirmation. The written Homily Report consists of listening to the homily and answering four questions.

Homily Reports begin in October of the 7th grade and continue straight through, including the summer, to December of 8th grade. There is one Homily Report due every month for a total of 15 Homily Reports.

Until the Diocese of Brooklyn mandates attendance at Mass again, you may attend Mass either:

- virtually (YouTube, pre-recorded or live parish Masses or Diocesan Masses) OR
- in-person at Our Lady of the Snows or any Catholic Church

The Homily Report form may be obtained from the Faith Formation Office, the Academy classroom, or the Church website: www.olsnows.org. (Click on Ministries, then Faith Formation, then click the link for Homily Report Form).

The schedule above is provided to ensure that one Homily Report per month is being fulfilled. You can, however, write a Homily Report on any Catholic Mass you watch or attend, at any time (Sunday, weekday); in any Church (Catholic); for any reason (Funeral, Wedding, School etc.) and it will count.

*Because of the Pandemic the current 8th graders are not responsible for the months of April through September 2020. We did however, extend the schedule for the 8th graders to include January through March of 2021 giving them a total of 12 Homily Reports due.
